SPECIAL ATTENTION GIVEN TO COTTON.

Liberal advances made on Consignments to us for sale, or Shipment to our friends in Baltimore, Philadelphia, New York or Liverpool.

Wishing to aid our Planter friends in their efforts to secure for themselves the full benefit of their Cotton Crops, we have determined to make advances on Cotton consigned to us on the following easy terms:

On Cotton, for sale at discretion, advance seventy-five (75) per cent of its market value, charging interest on the advance until the Cotton is sold at the rate of seven (7) per cent per annum.

On Cotton, to be held Thirty Days, advance fifty (50) per cent. of market value, charging the regular commision for advancing, 2½ per cent., and interest on the advance at the rate of seven (7) per cent. per annum.

On Cotton, to be held Sixty Days, fifty (50) per cent of its market value, charging commission for advancing, 2½ per cent., and interest on the advance at the rate of one (1) per cent per month.

In all cases the advance will be based upon the market value of the Cotton on the day it reaches us. MERCER & ANDERSON.

Also, will attend specially to all matters in Bankruptcy; and he begs leave to say to the unfortunate debtor, that the time wherein you will be allowed the full benefit of the Bankrupt Law, will expire on the first day of January, 1869; after that time you must pay fifty per centum of your indebtedness, or else you cannot have the benefit of the law, except by the consent of a majority, in number and value, of your creditors, which consent you will not be likely to obtain.—If you are in debt $300, or upwards, and feel that you cannot pay out, without subjecting yourself and family to great hardships and inconvenience, come to my office, and I will assist you to be relieved from all your distresses and embarrassments, by filing a petition for you for that purpose.

Be sure to make application before the 31st day of December, or else you will be too late! too late!

The citizens are specially invited to come to my office to consult me on any business they may desire to have attended to. They will always find me in my office, in a good humor, always glad to see you, and ready to give you a hearty, old-fashioned welcome, and will always be ready to attend to your business for you.

EVENING EDITION.

ATLANTA, GEORGIA, JANUARY 8.

The New York papers are discussing the propriety of dispensing altogether with their seventh or Sunday editions. The argument advanced is that such unbroken work gives employees no time for rest, violates the scriptural and moral injunction, and is not necessary.

Celeridge, in one of the most beautiful of similies, illustrates the pregnant truth that the more we know the greater our thirst for knowledge, and the more we love the more instinctive our sympathy: "The water lily, in the midst of waters opens its leaves and expands its petals at the first pattering of showers, and rejoices in the rain drops with a quicker sympathy than the parched shrub in the sandy desert."

When a business man disburses annually for salaries and expenses of travelers to solicit trade a larger sum than he pays in making his business known to the public through other judicious advertising, he may be sure that he ought to reconsider his management. Salesmen should be assisted in their arduous work by well managed advertising.

A Boston paper remarks that many people are moving from New England to the South, to avoid the insecurity of life and property in that section.

From Washington.

Special to the Louisville Courier-Journal]

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 5.— Congress re-assembled to-day with a full attendance in both houses. No important bills were introduced, and but little legislation was accomplished.

The Senate occupied most of the day in discussing a resolution calling on the President for a copy of his late amnesty proclamation, and questioning his authority for issuing the same. It is claimed by the Rads that he had no power to dispense amnesty before conviction. The resolution was finally passed.

IMPORTANT QUESTION.

A bill to pay a loyal claimant in Georgia for his property destroyed by Sherman's army was debated at length without any result, but with the indication that such claims would not be paid at present.

BUSTEED'S CASE.

The investigation of Judge Busteed's case before the Judiciary Committee of the House progresses. The testimony, even thus early, is admitted by Busteed's friends to be of a damaging character, and still stronger evidence it is said, will be forthcoming.

THE EMINENT CARPET-BAGGER.

He stands a fair chance for transmitting his name to posterity in an impeachment trial. Menard, the Louisiana colored man, who came here with a high feather in his Congressional aspirations, has left with a fallen crest. His impecunious condition was relieved by the freedmen's bureau, which furnished him with transportation free of charge to New Orleans.

TAX ON WHISKY.

The idea prevalent in the West that there is danger of Congress raising the tax on whisky is altogether erroneous. It is true money has been subscribed in New York, Cincinnati, and other cities for this purpose, but the movement has fallen still-born. The proposition has not been named in the Ways and Means Committee, and not one member of that committee is in favor of it.

RICE'S SEAT TO BE CONTESTED.

Sam McKee is the authority for stating that J. M. Zeigier, Radical, will contest the seat of J. M. Rice, Democratic member elect to Congress from the Eighth Kentucky district. It is charged that when Rice was arrested during the war a military commission from the Confederate States was found in his possession. According to McKee this will be substantiated.

SURRATT.

After strenuous efforts on the part of the Government to secure another indictment against John H. Surratt, the project is to be abandoned. A number of old witnesses have been brought before the grand jury, but they refused to repeat the testimony given by them upon the former trial. Susan Ann Johnson, colored, who swore that Surratt was in this city on the night of the assassination, and that she served him with supper at her mother's residence, on being brought before the grand jury a few days ago, denied any and all knowledge of Surratt's whereabouts on that evening. The District Attorney is said to be surprised at his witnesses, none of whom will stand up to the testimony given at the last trial. It is reported that Surratt has in course of preparation for the press a complete history of his wanderings during his efforts to avoid the government detectives and escape arrest, and that he will divulge everything he knows bearing in any way upon parties concerned in the assassination of President Lincoln. Surratt is not now in this country.

SAM. CAREY.

When the House was in Committee of the Whole to-day Congressman Carey made a speech in vindication of the principles of the national labor party on the land and finance questions. The greater portion of the hour was employed in discussing the necessity of financial reconstruction, and the resumption of specie payment and the funding bill were denounced in strong language. Both schemes, he said, were preparing the way for repudiation, and, he added, the producing classes preferred repudiation to starvation. Leading men of both parties complimented General Carey. The National Labor Union will distribute 100,000 copies of his speech at once.

THE LEGAL TENDER CASES.

It appears to be definitely understood that the Supreme Court will not render any decision in the legal tender cases till near the close of the sesion in May next.

GEN. GRANT

was at his headquarters to-day and during the forenoon, busily engaged in disposing of business which has accumulated during his absence. Among the visitors this morning were Gen. Meade, Gen. Van Vliet Senator Pomeroy, and others.

PROTEST OF RAILROAD MEN.

The Presidents of the four connecting railroads between Washington and New York, are here protesting against the passage, by Congress, of a bill for an air-line railroad.

VOORHEES.

Mr. Voorhees, member elect from Indiana to the next Congress, has arrived here. His election is not contested, as is generally supposed. His opponent talked of contesting, but did not give legal notice of such purpose.

A WHOLLY RADICAL COMMITTEE.

Under the recent reorganization of the Senate Financial Committee, all the members are Republicans. The Democrats have no representation in the committee.

New York Dry Goods Market.

NEW YORK, Jan. 5—P. M.

The recent heavy failures have rendered the trade extremely cautious in their operations and has wholly unsettled and deranged the paper market, so it would be impossible to give quotable rates for the very best names in lieu of these circumstances.

Savannah Market,

SAVANNAH, January 6—6 P. M.

COTTON—The market opened under the firmness of yesterday's close. Buyers entered and bid 26, to ¾, and in some instances ¼c higher asked but in fact holders generally were not offering, buyers taking such lots as were to be obtained at limits, preferring to await dispatches, which, when received, showed a decline of ⅛d in Liverpool and ¼c in New York; and just at this stage some holders manifested a disposition to uncover their samples to some buyers who were offering, at prices equivalent to the "off" in New York, and a few transactions took place, preliminary to holders en masse standing aloof, awaiting events, buyers notwithstanding, and the market closing quiet. We may remark that during the recent "rise" a large local speculation existed.

From the Constitutionalist.]

Augusta Market.

AUGUSTA, Jan. 6—P. M.

COTTON—The market opened strong with holders asking 24 for full style middling. With a quiet market in Liverpool and New York, prices became easier and sales were made on a basis of 25¾ for middling. Subsequent telegrams reported a ¼c decline in New York, with a weak Liverpool market, and we close heavy; buyers offering 25 for full class middlings, but no sales. Sales of the day 668 bales, and receipts 531 bales.

From the Journal and Messenger.]

TESTIMONIALS:

NEAR ATLANTA, GA., December 10th, 1868.
Messrs. Adair & Brother: I applied Soluble Pacific Guano, procured from you, at the rate of 200 pounds per acre on cotton. I am satisfied its use produced a crop three times greater than the land would produce without it. GEO. S. KEY.

NEAR ATLANTA, GA., Dec. 1, 1868.
Messrs. Adair & Brother: I applied 300 pounds per acre of Soluble Pacific Guano, procured from you. Notwithstanding a ten weeks' drought and the attack of the caterpillar, I gathered 800 pounds per acre. From the same land, without the Guano, I gathered only 200 pounds cotton — say less than one-fourth the quantity. E. MORRIS.

ATLANTA, GA., Dec. 12th, 1868.
Messrs. Adair & Brother: I used this year the Soluble Pacific Guano, bought of you, at the rate of 100 pounds per acre on cotton planted three feet apart in the drill. I am confident it is a pure article and believe it increased the yield double, notwithstanding a six weeks' drought and serious attack of caterpillar. J. M. CALHOUN.

ATLANTA, GA., Dec. 10th, 1868.
Messrs. Adair & Brother, Gents: I bought of you last spring one ton Soluble Pacific Guano and put it on cotton. It came fully up to my expectations and I cheerfully recommend it to planters as a profitable fertilizer for cotton. M. G. DOBBINS.

COLUMBUS, GA., December, 1868.
John S. Reese & Co., Dear Sirs: Another season confirms my previously expressed convictions, that the Soluble Pacific Guano, as compared with Peruvian, is fully as good—indeed better. I have now tested it sufficiently, using each side by side for two seasons, applying the same weight of each per acre, and in every case the Pacific has given the best results on cotton, corn, potatoes and small grain, and the testimony I have from a great many planters confirms my experience. WM. H. YOUNG.

Charles A. Peabody, Esq., of Lee county, Alabama, in a letter to William H. Young, says: "The Peruvian Guano I had before used, and know it to be an invaluable fertilizer for cotton I now find the Soluble Pacific to be equally as good. At the same price I would as soon have it for cotton or corn as the Peruvian; some of my hands insist that it is better." dec15-d3m

Death of Gen. Lovell H. Rosseau.

A New Orleans telegram announces the death, in that city, of Gen. Rosseau, Commanding the Department of Louisiana.—His death will be keenly felt by his many friends throughout the country. In all the strength of manhood, with all the force of a vigorous and powerful constitution at command, he has suddenly fallen as a giant of the forest before an unexpected storm. A man of positive forces, there were no negatives in his character. With him right on the one hand, and wrong on the other were distinctly marked. No influence could swerve him from a principle or the discharge of a duty. The writer knew him well, and intimately before the war, and although differing with him in the cause he took in the contest, his after conduct only convinced us the more firmly of his upright intent.

Gen. Rosseau was born in Mercer county, Kentucky; was about fifty years of age, and a lawyer, by profession. He was a gallant soldier in the Mexicen War; then a member of the Kentucky Senate for several sessions; a soldier in the late war; then elected to Congress from the Louisville district, which position he resigned; was next sent to Alaska, and then to the Department of Louisiana.

Radicalism had a determined foe in Gen. Rosseau. His death will be lamented by moderate men of all parties.

Mr. Opdyke on the Currency.

Mr. George Opdyke, of New York, who is represented to be one of the ablest financiers in the country, has written a letter to one of the United States Senators from that State, relative to the currency, and the reumption of specie payments, the wisdom of which, in our humble judgment, Congress would do well to adopt. We repeat what we have heretofore expressed. that any meausure looking to immediate resumption of spesie payments would result disastrously to the country, and that the question is not one simply of legislation, but for its solution, dependent on more substantial agencies. Mr. Opdyke is opposed to further expansion of the currency. He would have the legal tenders contracted at a rate not exceeding $10,000,000, per annum, which, added to increase of population and wealth, he thinks in ten years would raise the currency to a specie standard, and thereby pave the way for a safe and easy resumption.

The New York Sun sums up in brief, the leading points in the letter as follows:

Our present currency is too redundant to admit of the early or immediate resumption of specie payments. We have to-day a circulating medium, exclusive of bank deposits, of $17 to each soul of the population; while these deposits, being used by merchants in the liquidation of their indebtedness to one another, do practically form part of the circulation and swell its volume. The proper limit of a sound currency is not beyond $10 to each person of the population, as is proved by statistics. Whenever this limit has been extended heretofore in our history, it has been productive of inflation and subsequent financial disaster. and it now leads to the depreciation of the currency. In 1860, with a population of 33,000,000, we had $207,000,000 of paper money and about $70,000,000 of coin; whereas now, with a population of 38,000,000, we have—

Greenbacks - - - - -	$356,000,000
National Bank notes - -	300.000,000
Fractional currency - -	33,000,000
Coin in California and Texas -	30,000,000
Coin used by merchants and the United States - - -	25,000,000
Total - - - -	$744,000,000

Now, to attempt to resume specie payments without first reducing this swollen amount to the limit, say of $330.000,000, would be futile. The Bank of England tried the experiment under similar circumstances in 1817, and had to give it up in less than a week, a special act of Parliament being hurried through to enable it to do so. But if, again, the necessary contraction were to be made at once, it would lead to wide spread disaster and financial ruin.

There then remains only the alternative of rigidly keeping the amount of circulation just where it is, with a slight annual contraction of $10,000,000, to be judiciously made at seasons of the year when it will occasion no inconvenience, and with a reserve of $50,000,000 placed in the hands of the Secretary of the Treasury, to be used on occasions of great stringency, letting the country grow into a healthy state. Our circulation is now 70 per cent. in excess of what it should be. Eight years will add over 40 per cent. to our population, and nearly 50 per cent. to our commerce. The withdrawal of $80,000 000 of greenbacks and the wearing out of $10,000,000 more, would bring our circulation down to $554,000,000, while the increase of population and commerce would require $564,000,000, so that then we should be within our limit, and resumption would be easy enough.

As to the mischiefs occasioned by our present redundant currency, Mr. Opdyke thinks they are greatly overestimated. The first effect of inflation has long since been experienced, but if it be now firmly arrested and held where it is, no further evil can possibly result. Business has adjusted itself to the new order of things, and if nothing more is attempted to disturb it, it will go on as well as it could under any circumstances.

These views Mr. Opdyke illustrates and confirms with an abundance of facts and much cogent argument.

The Macon Factory.

We learn from the Telegraph that the Macon factory has the capacity to turn out 5,000 yards of cloth per day, from 2,000 pounds of raw cotton. Its purchases of cotton average $12,000 per month. The entire cost of the mill was $160,000. Present capital stock, $130.000. Last year it declared a dividend of 16 per cent. With a large outlay for new machinery since the war, its dividents have not been less than 10 per cent. Its net earnings amount to about $30.000 every year. Numbers of operatives employed, 125. Wages, from $15 to $35 per month, house rent free—the company having tenement houses expressly for operatives. The Telegraph adds:

"There are now about 50,000.000 spindles in operation in the whole world. Of this amount, Great Britain has 25,000,000, and the United States 8.000,000. They are rapidly on the increase, as especially in the Southern States, where the great bulk of cotton, and that, too, of the finest grade, is grown. The time cannot be far distant when all the staple grown here will be manufactured on the spot and shipped to market in bales of goods instead of bales of cotton, as is the practice now. We do not reap much over half the benefits of our labor, but the Yankee and the Briton make as much, if not more, than we do. As we have passed into a new era and entered upon a new age, we cannot come to any other than the conclusion that this whole business will be speedily revolutionized.

We not only demand more factories for the fabrication of white cloth, but for the manufacture of every species of goods into which cotton enters as a leading element. A recent idea has been advanced that our country is divided into three parts: the North-east makes, the West feeds and the South clothes. This last is not altogether true, but it would be if we manufactured as largely as we produce. It is unnatural for us to ship the raw material to New and Old England, there have it made, and then go there and buy our clothing. This is an insult to the laws of commerce, which will, sooner or later, he corrected."

Will not some of our enterprising capitalists, after seeing what a profit is derived from the Macon factory, conclude to build a similar one in Atlanta? Besides paying a handsome dividend in the stock, it would add materially to the leading interests of the city.

REORGANIZING THE MILITIA IN THE RECONSTRUCTED STATES.—The Washington correspondent of the New York Herald, says:

The sixth section of the army appropriation bill, approved March, 1867, provides: All militia forces now organized or in service in either of the States of Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Louisiana, Mississippi and Texas be forthwith disbanded and the further organization, arming or calling into service of the said militia forces or any part thereof is hereby prohibited, under any circumstances whatever, until the same shall be authorized by Congress.

Several days before Congress took the holiday recess a bill was passed repealing so much of the sixth sectson as is applicable to the States of North Carolina, South Carolina, Florida, Alabama, and Louisiana thus allowing them to maintain militia.—The bill was not then presented to the presiding officers of the two houses respectively, but will be to-morrow, and as soon as their signatures thereto be obtained it will be laid before the President for his consideration and action.

SOUTHERN INVESTMENTS.—It was stated in our Washington letter, some days ago, says the Savannah Republican, that Mr. Sprague, Republican United States Senator from Rhode Island, and son-in-law of Chief Justice Chase, had purchased a good portion of Cumberland Island, on the Georgia coast. A Northern exchange says he intends devoting his new estate to the cultivation of the Ramie plant.

We are glad to see members of Congress and especially Republican members, becoming identified with the interests of our State, and especially with the lower portion of it, where they will be able to test to their entire satisfaction the qualifications of the negroes for citizenship and labor. We hope more of them will come, for it will necessarily involve more or less intercourse with our people, and, as a consequence, a better understanding of our condition. Sharing our lot, too, to some extent, they will be better able to appreciate our complaints and provide a remedy for public grievances.

THE BANKRUPT LAW.—A legal firm in Macon furnishes the Telegraph with the following information:

"There can be no question of the right of creditors to force debtors into bankruptcy after January 1, 1869. This is an important branch of the law and permanent. There can be no doubt, too, that petitions (voluntary) can be filed after January 1, 1869, the same as before, and the case proceed. All the difference is, a majority of those proving claims must consent in writing, or the bankrupt cannot be discharged unless his assets pay fifty per cent."

☞Archbishop McCrosky has conferred the order of sub-deacon on Francis A. Spencer and Henry A. Lake. The ceremony took place in the church of St. Paul the Apostle, corner of Fifty-Ninth street and Ninth avenue, New York. They are both converts to the Roman Catholic faith; the former is a son of a Protestant Episcopal clergyman residing in Taeryton, and the latter was a Homœpathic physician.

☞Four hundred acres of land in Montgomery county, and two hundred acres in Decatur county, sold in Augusta, on Tuesday, for two dollars and a half, all together. Four hundred and ninety acres, in Appling county, sold for ten cents an acre!

☞The Lynchburg Republican states that the Hon. J. A. Seddon, who acted for several years as Confederate Secretary of War, has become a member of the mercantile establishment of Geo. Lee & Co., of Richmond.

The Secret of Agricultural Success.

From the Hancock Journal.]

This is what nearly everybody wants to know and but few have found out. As a general thing farmers and planters of the South have been opposed to learning.—They get into the habits and old beaten ruts of their ancestors, and it is next to impossible to get them out. "Book-farming," as it is termed, as a general thing, is unpopular, and yet these very books, so summarily discarded, are but the experience of men whose labors have been crowned with success, and who have grown prosperous and rich by abandoning the errors of the past. Look at Mr. David Dickson, of Hancock county; he is a book-farmer, working a plantation which ten years ago was remarkable for its poverty more than for any other quality, and yet he makes one acre produce, with the same amount of labor, from three to ten times as the lands of Georgia neighbors. How is this great result accomplished? That it is great and that the same process adopted generally by the agriculturalists of the South would double our wealth. in less than five years, is beyond all question. The facts are clearly established, and a school boy who can cypher in the Rule of Three, will be at no loss in demonstrating this conclusion.

We take Mr. Dickson's case because it is an illustrative one. It is not a question of luck. but one of good skill and judgment, and any man who follows his plans is obliged to succeed. What, then, is the secret of this great Georgia farmer? It is simply to give back more of the producing principle to the soil every year than you take away from it. Here is a solution of the whole mystery, and we may add that the more you give back the more prosperous you will become. Mr. Dickson's plan involves no particular skill of cultivation. He ploughs deep, keeps his crops clean and the earth well stirred during the growing season. Most planters do this, and yet there is one essential part of his system—the one that fertilizes all his labors and crowns them with success—that most other planters do not observe. It is that which we have mentioned—the liberal use of manures, whether made on the farm or imported from abroad, though in every respect experience has demonstated the superiority of the latter. They are more powerful and more portable, and in the long run the cheaper of the two.

We are well aware that the idea of paying out money for manures is repugnant to many old fogies, who are content to lag behind in the race of progress; but all intelligent planters are obliged to see and confess that practical results have established their unreasonable obstinacy. If an acre of ground unaided will bring the value of $33 in cotton, and by the application of $20 in manure you can make it produce $100, there is a clear gain of $47 after the payment of all expenses. This is a reasonable calculation; many planters who use commercial manures greatly exceed that amount of gain. Then, why do our agriculturists hold back? Why not avail themselves of this new power commerce has placed at their command and reap the glorious fruits, instead of toiling on, year after year, with exploded systems of culture, and growing poorer and poorer as time advances? Common sense is a popular phrase among planters, and we commend them to its teachings in this matter. It is a grave one, indeed, and involves the destiny of our people for the future.

And in this connection we would bring to the public attention the claims of those merchants of Savannah, who have embarked in this particular business of supplying our planters with the various fertilizers, foreign and domestic. While they seek their own prosperity they are engaged in a beneficial work, and we would rejoice to see them all get rich, for we would have the assurance that they did so, not at the cost of their countrymen, but from their thrift and prosperity; though, to speak more correctly, we should reverse the order of cause and effect—the planter will have prospered on the business of the merchant. The time is approaching for preparing the soil for another crop, and, as most of our planters will have a surplus, let them all invest a liberal portion of it, if not the whole, which would be better, in well-selected fertilizers. It pays quickly, it pays surely, and a far better per cent. than any other possible investment.

John Bright at Court.

From the New Castle Chronicle.]

In certain circles, in London conversation for the last few days has been all about Mr. Bright's appearance at court, which was attended by incidents of a very interesting character. Some years ago Lord Derby volunteered a remark, considered at the time highly gratuitous and offensive, to the effect that Mr. Bright could not be "sent for" by the Queen, as he would be a distasteful person at court. A year or two afterwards Mr. Bright resented this in his own effective way, in a speech he made at Birmingham, in which he reminded Lord Derby that there were persons who stood upon the steps of the throne without being able to add anything to the security of it by increasing the affection of the people for it, and whose presence so near to it was not a national advantage. We understand, on Mr. Gladstone mentioning to her Majesty that he intended, with her permission, to offer a seat in the Cabinet to the honorable member from Birmingham, the Queen was pleased to say it would afford her the greatest satisfaction if Mr. Bright should consent to serve the Crown—that she had read his speeches with great pleasure, and that she was under the greatest obligations to him for the many kind words he had spoken of her, especially of a speech he made about two years ago in a great meeting at St. James' Hall. When Mr. Bright went to Windsor to take the oaths of office, her Majesty showed her delicate consideration for the great Commoner in a very marked way. She sent Mr. Helps, the Clerk of the Privy Council, to assure Mr. Bright, if it was more agreeable to his feelings to omit the ceremeny of kneeling or kissing hands, he was quite at liberty of doing so. Mr. Bright availed himself of this considerate permission, and was very kindly and cordially received by her Majesty, who took occasion in the most marked manner to express her gratification at meeting him. It was afterwards intimated to Mr. Bright that her royal Highness, the Princess Royal of Prussia, had expressed a desire that Mr. Bright should be presented to her. This was done, and the Princess heartily assured Mr. Bright that she greatly desired to be acquainted with him—that she herself and all the members of the royal family were greatly indebted to him for the way in which he had spoken of their mother. She herself, she said, had read all his speeches, and she was very pleased to see him. Mr. Bright replied in very graceful terms, and said if her royal highness would permit him he would tell her what the late Mr. Buchanan, the American Minister, when last in London, said of her to him, "that wherever her royal highness went she shed sunshine over all her path." Mr. Bright was very much struck with the graceful, animated manners and genial greeting he had the honor to receive from her royal highness. and the young ladies of the court tell with curious interest of the meeting between her royal highness and the great Quaker courtier. Mr. Bright has already become as famous in royal circles as his great predecessor, William Penn. As a great deal has been said and written about the Queen's personal feelings, and as some of Mr. Gladstone's own intimate supporters have believed till lately that Mr. Disraeli had an undue influence over her, it is most satisfactory to hear, as we have on the very best authority, that her Majesty's private reception of her new Prime Minister was so gracious, so kind, even so "affectionate" that the word used, as to overwhelm him with feelings of the warmest gratitude. Nothing could have more lightened his recent toils, or cheered him more thoroughly in the happily few difficulties he has had to contend with.

Samuel Stewart, Marshal, salary $600; Jas. D. Muncie, Deputy Marshal, $550; H. A. Smith, Clerk; R. Z. Haygrove, Treasurer, $200 each; Jas. C. Pemberton, Clerk of the Market, $240.

The Congressional Cotton Bill.

The Virginia Negro Troubles.

Death of Col. Thomas N. Burwell.

WASHINGTON, January 8.—SENATE.—The bill regulating the price and encouraging the production of cotton was referred to the Finance committee.

Morrill reported a bill amending the act providing for the fractional currency, and mentioned incidentally that the United States loses $600,000 by a National Bank in Boston. Passed.

The bill restricting the jurisdiction of the Court of Claims was referred to the Judiciary committee.

The bill for the relief of Miss Sue Murphy was resumed.

Hendricks favored the bill.

Without action the Senate passed several personal disability bills and adjourned.

HOUSE—The Philadelphia sugar refiners apply for a new classification of sugar for tariff purposes. A number of private bills passed. After a long discussion, the Appropriation for West Point passed. The House then went into Committee and adjourned to Monday.

There was a full Cabinet to-day. Gen. F. P. Blair visited the President. Rosseau's death causes general gloom here; he was highly respected and loved.

The Cotton Bill authorizes the Secretary of the Treasury to purchase raw cotton grown after the passage of the bill, delivered at any railroad depot, or on steamers making direct connection with New York, at 20 cents per pound, and 30 for sea island. Purchases made through revenue officers are exempt from tax, but if sold to others than agents of the United States, the agents are taxed three cents per pound. Cotton purchased by the Government shall be sold at a price not less than five cents advance on cost. If manufactured within the United States, a drawback of two and a half cents is allowed for cotton used by them. A full report of all the transactions to be presented to Congress at the commencement of each regular session.

The Virginia committee were all present except J. W. Bolling, Windham and Robertson. Bolling is expected. Windham is absent on important business. The meeting to-night is only preliminary and private,

ROCHESTER, N. Y., January 8.—Eight of the fifty wounded by the falling of a school house are dead. The accident is attributed by the Coroner's jury to neglect in putting full stone caps on brick piers.

NEW YORK, January 8.—Gen. Rousseau will be buried here to-morrow at 3 o'clock, P. M.

General Buchannan assumed command to-day, by virture of seniority. His order assuming command simply announces that fact.

Generals Babcock and Porter, of Grant's staff, have returned from Texas.

Sixty civilian agents and clerks of the Freedmen's Bureau, of this State, have been discharged, reducing that establishment to small proportions.

Orders were issued yesterday fobidding further admission to the Freedmen's Hospital of this city.

RICHMOND, January 8.—A company of infantry and a battery of the 5th artillery was sent to Norfolk by rail to-day.

A meeting of the citizens is called for to-morrow, to make preparations for the funeral of Mr. Botts. The bells here tolled all day. The State-house flags were half-mast.

Col. Thomas N. Burwell, Captain in the war of 1812, died to-day, aged 81 years.

NORFOLK, VA., January 8.—Reliable information received this evening from the scence of yesterday's affray; the negroes are much excited, but no further acts of violence. The military force sent to the assistance of the Sheriff has returned to the city; no further disturbance apprehended.

TALLAHASSEE, Jan. 8.—There was no business done in the Senate.

The House reorganized by electing M. L. Starns speaker, after which a slight demonstration was made to re-appoint Investigating Committee which met with but little encouragement.

PARIS, Janaary 8.—The Conference certainly opens to-morrow. The Sultan telegraphed instructions including orders to withdraw should Turkey's ultimatum to Greece be discussed. The newspaper, Turquie, in yesterday's issue, says, if the Turkish representative withdraws war with Greece is inevitable.

Bullion in the Bank of France has decreased twenty-seven and one-half million francs.

It is said that the proprietors of the celebrated PLANTATION BITTERS rent no less than nine pews from the different denominations in New York city for all those of their employees who will occupy them regularly, free of charge. This is certainly praiseworthy, and it is to be hoped that others who employ a large number of people, will follow the example. The above fact, accompanied with the belief that a firm who would look so closely after the morals and welfare of their employees, would not undertake to impose upon the public, has induced us to give the PLANTATION BITTERS a trial, and having found them to be all that is represented, we cordially recommend them as a tonic of rare merit.—Observer, July 1st.

THE DEAD OF THE YEAR.—The ncrological record of the year comprises the names of Charles Kean, Sir David Brewster, Lord Brougham, James Rothschild, Berryer, Samuel Lover, Coquerel the sculptor, Marochetti, Rossini and Dean Milman in Europe; and in this country the following: Bishop Hopkins, Leutze, Elliott, the Mount brothers, the sculptor Ball Hughes, Seba Smith, Charles G. Halpine, Professor Adler, Julia Dean Hayne, James Buchanan and Thaddeus Stevens. Admiral Bell, of our navy, while on service abroad, and Ada Isaacs Menken, died in Paris.

☞A correspondent in the Examiner and Chronicle, one of the organs of the Baptist Church, thus sums up an argument against admitting to their communion those who have not been baptised by immersion: First, the Lord's Supper is a Church ordinance, designed exclusively for church members. Second, Baptist churches are the only gospel churches. Third, therefore only members of the Baptist Churches are entitled to the privileges of The Supper.

IMPROVEMENT OF THE NAVIGATION OF THE TENNESSEE RIVER.—The Chattanooga Daily Republican contains a call for a Convention to assemble in that city on the 24th February next, to take measures to induce Congress to make an appropriation of the necessary means to construct a canal round the Muscle Shoals of the Tennessee river.

We quote a portion of the call:

We, the Governors aforesaid, most earnestly recommend that the cities, villages and counties of the Tennessee Valley, and the counties adjacent thereto, the Boards of Trade and other business associations throughout the country, be represented in the Convention. The importance of providing free transportion by water for the vast products of the country drained by the Tennessee River cannot be over-estimated.

To the people of the whole South and West, to the entire country, the measure is of the greatest importance, and as a commercial matter an imperative necessity. A consultation of representative men cannot fail to advance it.

The above is the order of the docket of the December Term, 1868, of said Court, which will resume its session on the Second Monday in January, 1868.

The first six circuits have been disposed of, except one case from the Middle, which was placed in the front of the Northern circuit by consent, and three other cases taken to the heel of the docket.

When the Court took recess, one of the continued cases and Nos. 1, 2 and 5 of the regular cases had been argued. The other continued case had been put to the heel of that Circuit by consent.

No. 3 of the Cherokee Circuit will be in order for argument at 10 o'clock, A. M., on Monday, the 11th inst. (That Monday will not be used for consultation.)

We will get from the Reporter, every evening at the close of the Court, the exact status of the business, and publish it next morning, so that the counsel abroad may not be kept in uncertainty as to the probable time when they will be needed.

HORSES AND BROOD MARES AT AUCTION. This morning Col. Adair will sell that lot of horses and brood mares, at Archer's Stable.

NEW YORK HAT STORE IN THE FIELD AGAIN.—You can't run him out, Jesse Holbrook is bound to sell, and the way he does it is to let the people know through THE CONSTITUTION, what he has for sale.

MESSRS. P. P. PEASE & CO., ALABAMA STREET.—These gentlemen have a large stock of groceries and are daily in receipt of consignments. They offer inducements to parties to ship to them, assuring them that quick sales and a fair return will be made. They have just received one hundred barrels of Tennessee apples and a lot of dressed fowls of all kinds.

THE FIREMEN'S BALL.—We had the pleasure of attending the ball given last evening at the City Hall, by the old veteran Atlanta Fire Company No. 1. Music and mirth reigned during the evening; every one went to have a good time, and none came away disappointed.

Our noble firemen are always ready and prompt to duty when danger is near. When pleasure is offered, they are equally as ready to show their gallantry and politeness. May they enjoy many such evenings as last.

THE CITY.—Mayor's Court.—First Sitting of His Honor, Mayor Hulsey.—Jack Bryant up for disorderly conduct. Fined $4.50; concluded to board it out at Murphy's hotel.

Robert Walden, for disorderly conduct. Fined $5 and costs; concluded also, to take board at Murphy's.

Mary Jones, Jack Jones, Laura Green and Mary Hancock, were also up for misdemeanor. Sent to Murphy's.

Two negro boys were arrested for stealing apples from a wagon. Sentenced to Scrub Callaboose.

SUDDEN DEATH.—John Gallagher, an Irishman by birth, fell dead yesterday at Mike Haverty's saloon, known as the "Shamrock," on Hunter street. The decision of the Coroner's jury was that his death was occasioned by the excessive use of spirituous liquors. He leaves no family, was a machinist by trade, and was formerly employed in the State Road Shop.

BANQUET TO THE ATLANTA PRESS.—We trust Judge Whitaker, of the Intelligencer, will pardon us for making mention of the elegant entertainment given by him, at his residence, in this city, Thursday night, to the newspaper and editorial fraternity of Atlanta. The occasion was one which brought together different religions and political opinions, wherein the sectarian and partisan were forgotten in the genial influences of the social circle.

The press has but one true mission—to do all the good possible, and the least harm. To accomplish this, its members should cultivate the kindest feeling for each other, and work together for the common weal.

The Christian Index was represented in the person of Mr. Toon, proprietor, and Rev. Dr. Shaver, editor; The Methodist Advocate by Mr. Lee, one of the proprietors, and Rev. Mr. Fuller, editor; the New Era, Dr. Bard; the Intelligencer by Major Steele and Mr. Lumpkin, and THE CONSTITUTION by Mr. Hemphill and Major Barrick. Outside of the profession, Rev. Dr. Brantley and Chief Justice Brown were present, as invited guests.

THE MILTONIAN TABLEAUX.—The little folks will doubtless turn out in large numbers this evening to visit this beautiful exhibition. The proprietor has considerately placed the price of admission so low that all can go. To-night will positively be the last.

☞ Captain J. E. Ritch has been elected Mayor of Athens.

THIS VALUABLE IMPROVEMENT that has met with such unbounded success throughout the East, West, and North and the parts of the South where it has been introduced,
IS NOW ON EXHIBITION AND FOR SALE AT THE STORE OF Echols, Langford & McCrath,
Key Stone Block,
Whitehall street,
Atlanta, Georgia,

Where we cordially invite all to call and see its operations. The idea of washing clothes without rubbing or wear to the material is now no longer a mystery. It is being practically used, and with entire satisfaction by many of the best citizens of this city, and hundreds and thousands of people throughout the East and West.

Mr. DeWitt is owner of the Southern and Pacific States and Territories for this valuable invention, and will sell interests by the County and State, to any one wishing a sure and paying business at prices that cannot but suit the purchaser.

States and Counties that have been sold for this improvement have since sold at enormous figures in comparison to the price we ask. For instance, Illinois was sold for $6 000 and since sold for $40,000; counties in Kentucky, that we sold for $60 by the State has since sold for $600, and I can safely say that so far no man has invested his money but what is making a fortune. We can give name and address of nearly every one that has purchased rights in the United States, so parties can correspond with them and get their views on the investment they made.

For territory by Counties or States address or call on HENRY WELLINGTON,

Robespierre in a New Character.

Nero was a musician; the inventor of the guillotine was a soft-hearted philanthropist, and now Robespierre has turned up as a lyric poet. A manuscript in his handwriting and signed with his full name, has just been found among the posthumous papers of an old lawyer in Toulouse. This Robespierrian manuscript contains a tender effusion in verse, of which the following is offered as a free translation:

Twice at least in life, there slips
From man's heart a tender truth;
"Mother!" lisp the infant's lips;
"I love thee!" cry the lips of youth.
When the first the mother hears
Found in her heare replied,
While the second oft with tears
Dims a happy maiden's eyes.

Ah, beware, Eliza, dear!
This "I love thee" soundeth sweet,
Yet it may be in thine ear
Foudest flattery and not deceit.
Who a lover's truth would prove
Needs a deeper skill. Take care!
He who deftest says "I love thee"
Is too often false and fair.
Who feels least will most appear
Prompt of speech; beware of wit;
To try heart and not thine ear
Test of a lover's truth commit.

Stewart's Georgia Bill.

The following contains the substance of a bill introduced by Senator Stewart, into the United States Senate, on the 4th, to form a State Government for Georgia:

It provides for a repeal of so much of the act of June 5, 1868, as relates to Georgia, and making the government of the State provisional only, and subjected to the act of March 2, 1867, and all officers elected under the present proposed constitution of the State who are not disfranchised by the fourteenth amendment or any of the acts above mentioned, except members of the Legislature, shall continue in office until the State shall be fully restored.

It further provides that such members of convention, elected under the laws of Congress to form a State constitution, shall be such as are not disfranchised, and shall assemble on the first Monday of March next, with full powers to alter or amend said constitution in any manner not in conflict with the laws of Congress and the constitution. Said State constitution, as amended, shall be submitted to the people at such time as the convention may appoint, and on ratification such persons and no others shall vote as shall be prescribed in said constitution. Provided, no person shall be excluded from voting on account of race or color. When said constitution shall have been ratified by a majority of votes it may be submitted for the consideration of Congress.

THE WEEK OF PRAYER.—The present week is observed as a period of prayer, by the various Christian denominations of America, in union with the Evangelical Alliance. The following services are to be observed for the remainder of the week:

Friday, Jan. 8—Prayer for missions. Saturday, Janury 9—Prayer for the conversion of Israel, for the circulation of the Holy Scriptures, for Christian and philanthropic societies, and for the outpouring of the Holy Spirit on Christians and Christian churches throughout the world. Sunday, January 10—Sermons.

A RIVAL OF BLIND TOM.—A negro girl has been astonishing the people of Vicksburg, Miss., by her performances on the piano. She is eighteen years old, and as black as the ace of spades, does not know a single note of music, and cannot spell the simplest word. She was a house servant and as such was permitted to play upon the piano. She can play any piece, however difficult it may be, after hearing it played; and her accuracy and delicacy of touch is really something very remarkable. For the past two years she has been employed as a field-hand, and has had no opportunity of playing or listening to others play.

The excellent remedies of O. S. Prophitt, M. D., need no recommendation. Their well known power in removing the diseases peculiar to our Southern Climate, having already established for them an enviable reputation in Georgia and the adjoining States. As the majority of persons living in the South are pre-disposed to disease of the Liver, it is granted by all intelligent physicians that most of the pains and aches of our people are due to organic or functional derangement of that important organ. Prophitt's Anti-Bilious Pills and Liver Medicine strike directly at the root of the evil. They cure the Liver which, in nine cases out of ten, is at the bottom of the Coughs, Dyspepsia, Colic, Sick Headache, Rheumatism, Constipation, Menstrual Obstructions, etc., so common among our people, Earache Toothache, Acute Rheumatism, Neuralgia, and bodily pains of every kind, flee before PROPHITT'S PAIN KILL. SAVANNAH REPUBLICAN,
Daily and Weekly,
By J. R. SNEED.

THE undersigned is pleased to announce to his friends and the public that he has again come in possession of this time-honored journal, and expects to devote his entire time to making it, as a newspaper, second to none in the South. The liberal patronage of the past and better years, while the REPUBLICAN was under his charge, encourages him to hope that by prompt and continued support the public will enable him to carry this purpose into effect.
To the MERCHANTS of the South, and especially of his own State, he looks with confidence for a general support, promising them, in return, the best news, commercial and political journal that his experience and capabilities can produce.

The Weekly Republican,
Designed more especially for the planting community, and others who have not the privilege of a daily mail, will be found to contain all the news of the week condensed into a small compass, and by the close of the year we expect to issue it on a large and imperial sheet of eight pages, to contain more reading matter than any paper in the South.

TERMS:

Daily, One Year	$10 00
" Six Months	5 00
" For a less time (per month)	1 00
Weekly per Year	3 00

N. B. Payment in advance for either edition will be required, without exception.
